

If you find drugs be extremely careful when handling them. "Carfentanil" is so potent that it landed two first responders in the hospital from inhaling dust while closing a ziplock bag a patient had. Expect people who OD to take 10x more Narcan to start breathing again. The picture compares the lethal amounts of heroin, fentanyl, and carfentanil. Can't be too careful.